WILL BORROW

Money to Pay Costs

Taxed Against Village In the Shumway Case.

Carrs Will Not be Released on Bail.

Two Motions Were Overruled by Judge Kohler.

Receiver For Local Company—Court House News.

The costs in the Shumway case have not been paid in full and it may be necessary to begin proceedings against the village of Cuyahoga Falls to square the account.

The aggregate amount charged against the plaintiffs in the action was $575. Of this amount the Court ordered that $200 be taxed against the village. All but one of the individuals has paid his share. The village has been notified that it is time that its share of the bill was settled. The officials said some time ago that they would borrow the cash to pay up. To date they have failed to do so. All the money collected has been paid out.

WARD'S MOTION.
Charles H. Palmer has filed a motion asking that his guardian be discharged. He says that he is now and always has been able to take care of his property.

WILL FILED.
The will of Susanna Smetts, filed in Probate court Monday, provides that her estate be divided equally between her three grandchildren, Bennett C., Ada and Martin A. Smetts. The division is not to be made until the youngest child is 21 years of age. In case the grandchildren are not alive at the expiration of the time specified she provides that all of her estate be given to the First Church of Christ.

CALENDAR ENTRIES.

FORTY-FIRST

Annual Convention

Of the Sunday Schools of Ohio,

Will be Held In Akron This Week.

All Arrangements Have Been Made by Committee.

Noted Speakers Will Attend the Sessions.

The forty-first annual State Sunday School convention will convene in this city Tuesday and continue in session until Thursday evening.
The meetings will be held in the First M. E. church and every effort has been put forth to make this the climax of all previous conventions. The entertainment committee has received advice from the majority of counties and it is expected that the attendance of delegates will very nearly reach the limit of 10 from each county, a total of 880 for the State. Many visitors will also be present swelling the number to 1,500 strangers.

The Sunday School Association which has had the convention in charge will hold its final meeting this evening at the First M. E. church. More volunteers to furnish entertainment to visitors are needed.

Delegates upon arrival in the city will repair at once to the First M. E. church where the entertainment committee will meet them and assign places of entertainment. The neighboring churches will serve dinners and suppers to all visitors for 25 and 20 cents respectively.

The convention proper opens at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning when the annual meeting of the executive committee will be held. At 9:30 the delegates will assemble and at 10 o'clock there will be a half hour service of song. At 11 o'clock the general secretary, Joseph Clark, of Columbus, will call the roll by counties.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, P. P. Bilhorn, of Chicago, will conduct the song service and 3:30 Secretary C. D. Meigs of Indiana, will have charge of the round table. At 4 o'clock Rev. Robert Shepherd, of Hiram, will deliver an address, and a half hour later Prof. Geo. S. Burroughs, of Oberlin, will speak.

At 8 o'clock in the evening a "Tip Top" welcome from the "Tip Top" city will be given. Mayor W. E. Young will speak in behalf of the city; Rev. C. E. Keller in behalf of the churches and Attorney J. C. Frank in behalf of the Sunday schools. Dr. Samuel Findley was to have delivered the last welcome but owing to ill health he notified the committee that he could not accept. Mr. Frank was secured Monday afternoon. Rev. C. E. Miller of Dayton, will respond and Rev. L. H. Seagar, of Cleveland, and Prof. G. S. Burroughs, of Oberlin, will deliver addresses.

Dorothy In England.

Do you realize how many children are named Dorothy? A children's hospital in London not long ago asked every child in England named Dorothy to contribute a shilling toward a bed to be called by that name. The result was enough money to found a dozen beds, showing that there are thousands and thousands of children named Dorothy living in England alone.—Athena son Globe.
